

MAY 1, 2002

Greiner-Maltz launches website

Greiner-Maltz has announced the launch of <http://www.greiner-maltz.com>, a fully encompassed website serving the commercial and industrial needs of the Brooklyn, Queens, Bronx, Manhattan and Long Island communities.

“This Website, 6-months in the making, is the only up-to-date, fully interactive commercial and industrial real estate site of its’ kind,” says John Maltz, SIOR. “Whether you’re a broker, an appraiser or just looking for a new location for your business, this easy to navigate site, designed by John J. Stevens, of Bullfrog Communications, will have something for you.”

While at greiner-maltz.com, you can meet the professionals of Greiner-Maltz, learn about our rich company history, read our press releases, browse and download our Exclusive Listings or visit the “Available Properties” area, which is derived from a proprietary Greiner-Maltz database containing up to 500 general listings and is updated on a daily basis.

In the “Free Stuff” category, you can register to automatically receive notice of Greiner-Maltz exclusive listings, request a copy of our Greiner-Maltz Market Report—a statistical confirmation of the real estate trends in the Brooklyn, Queens, Bronx, Manhattan and Long Island—or you can receive free local maps by qualifying for membership in our Map Club.