The very first Museum of Elevator Artifact and History will open on the second floor of 21-03 44th Ave. in Long Island City as soon as it is approved by the state Board of Regents as a non-profit.

The museum's founder, Patrick Carrajat, is a 48-year veteran of the industry. He founded Century Elevator in 1973, started Certified Elevator in the 1980s and is now with his LIR Consulting Group.

Ryan Maltz of Greiner-Maltz represented the museum and the building owner in the transaction. Asking rent in the building is $25 a foot. Lois@BetweenTheBricks.com
